ASUR Statement Regarding Effects of Hurricane Isidore

Mexico City, September 23, 2002, Grupo Aeroportuario del Sureste, S.A. de C.V. (NYSE: ASR; BMV: ASUR) (ASUR) today announced that Merida Airport has been closed since Sunday, September 22 at 2:00 pm local time, due to Hurricane Isidore. The Company expects that the airport will resume normal operations later today.

Since September 22, intense work has been carried out in Merida Airport to prepare for the arrival of Hurricane Isidore. The impact of the incoming hurricane was as follows: some apron lighting was blown down, some windows in the terminal building were cracked, airbridges were damaged and some advertising billboards were blown down in the parking lot. The total cost of damages has not yet been estimated and the insurance company is currently preparing the corresponding reports.

ASUR estimates that 20 arrivals and/or departures at Merida Airport were cancelled in connection with the hurricane. Airport operations have returned to normal and final cleaning is being implemented.

ASUR also reported that at Cancun Airport there was an accident where one employee from the external security company died as a result of an electrocution in connection with the hurricane.

ASUR estimates that 89 arrivals and/or departures were cancelled at Cancun Airport in connection with the hurricane and has as of today normalised flight operations. Cancun Airport has not reported any damages in connection with the hurricane and in general terms, the tourist infrastructure at Cancun and the Mayan Riviera are operating normally.

At this time ASUR cannot estimate the effect that these events will have on the Company's results of operations.
